

SUSMILE Capsule 2.1.4

Answers

Answers:

1. In multimodal changes in road transport, what types of changes are normally made?
 - a) From a smaller vehicle to a larger one
 - b) Between the same vehicle types
 - c) From a larger vehicle to a smaller one

2. Choose the option which is NOT an advantage of road multimodality:
 - a) Saving time and money
 - b) It is a faster distribution option, in all situations
 - c) Pollution-free options

3. Is the use of trams and metros seen as an option for goods delivery?
 - a) Yes, it is an option that takes advantage of existing infrastructure
 - b) Yes, but it has not yet been implemented in any city
 - c) No, it is only for personal mobility

